

Oceanside Community Makerspace Book Club!

“The Lonely Book Club”

We formed a club for reading books,
With pens and tea and lofty looks.
We printed flyers, made a post—
Three likes (from me), and that was most.

Our meeting night was Friday eight,
We set out snacks and hoped they'd wait.
Two chairs stood full, the rest stood bare—
Just me and Sue, in folding chairs.

We read Pride and Prejudice aloud,
Pretending we had quite a crowd.
I played Liz Bennet, Sue was Jane,
Then swapped when it began to rain.

We've tried romance, sci-fi, and crime,
We've met three members... one at a time.
But hope's not lost—we'll never quit,
For readers small, we've got big wit!

So come join in—no need to prep,
Just bring your laughs (and maybe rep).
We promise warmth, good books, and cheer—
And shelter from the rain out there! 🌧️🍵📖

Not gonna lie,
this ones having trouble getting off the ground!

Interest for the Book Club hasn't been great so far but we're not giving up....

We know you are out there!!

Send in an email to oceansidemakerspace@gmail.com

with the subject line Book Club and let us know you are interested. As soon as we have a "group", we'll start with a book selection meeting.
